Local Department.

"Michigan in the War," will not be ready for distribution before fall.

Mrs. W. M. Branch has gone to Dansville, N. Y., to visit a water cure establishment.

A certain man in this town says his wife is not only a thing of beauty, but jawy forever.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whelpley have "busted up." Incompatibility of temper we presume.

Mrs. Wm. H. Jordan and daughter, of Waverly, are visiting at O. A. Breck's in Porter.

Chas. T. Ralston, of Troy, N. Y., is visiting G. E. Breck. They were class-mates in Ann Arbor.

Miss Fellows, of Jackson, Mich., is visiting her uncle, T. R. Harrison and will spend most of the summer there.

Sam. Lamont has been nursing a pet, in the shape of a felon on his hand. Dr.
Hathaway lanced it and Sam. lost a good deal of bad blood.

Dr. J. Andrews started to-day (Friday) for St. Paul Minn., to attend a convention of the Am. Med. Association.

H. S. Williams, formerly editor of this paper, started for Dakota on Tuesday morning last. Success to you Hank.

Frank Hall, Esq., of Devereux, Mich., a cousin of O. W. Rowland, is doing a portion of the carpenter work on Doughty's new house.

J. D. Allen, Esq., has returned to Paw Paw and intends to spend the summer at home. Can it be that any of Paw Paw's fair daughters have an attraction for him? Call around Dell.

The Bangor races will take place on the race course at that place, on Friday and Saturday, June 9th and 10th. The names of the Secretary and President, Messrs. E. S.
Harvey and J. G. Miller, are a guarantee that the affair will be a success.

A great deal of good work has been done on the road between this place and Gobleville, both on this and the other end of the route.
On Tuesday next there will be a "picnic-bee" at the residence of J. H. Niles for the purpose of hauling gravel. Everybody and his wife are invited to come.

Judge A. J. Mills and Frank Parks, Esq., of Paw Paw, and Justice E. H. Haynes of Pine Grove, were inducted into the mysteries of Royal Arch Masonry at the meeting of Paw Paw Chapter, on Monday evening last.
Delegations of the fraternity were present from various localities and a good time is reported.

We had a pleasant call from Dr. O. F.
Thomas this week. The doctor is looking hale and hearty, and seems to be enjoying his new home very much. He will be missed in Lawton and vicinity, as he had many friends and an extensive practice there; but what is their loss is another's gain, and we predict success for him in his new field of labor.

John Curtiss, the fellow who recently burglarized the store of Kinney, Adams & Co. at Lawton, and who gave officer McCabe such a foot race a few days since, was arraigned in court on Monday morning last and pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary, and was sentenced by Judge Mills to five years at Jackson. He was immediately taken to that place. He will be an older if not a wiser man before he leaves it.

The following is an extract from a private letter from Summerfield Ford, formerly of this village: "I was in Michigan last week getting married, but had not time to call in your town. I am stenographer and private secretary to H. M. Hoxie, general manager of Gould's southern system of railroads, and travel with him over three thousand miles of road monthly, in Arkansas, Missouri, Texas and Mexico."

Paw Paw must yield the palm to Bangor.
The latter place is rapidly assuming the airs of a metropolitan town and becoming as demoralized as any other large city; that is, if what we hear is true. It is stated, among other things, and vouched for as true, that the sports of that enterprising burg, even now, have their regular Sunday cock fights, and that some of the first citizens of the place visit them and invest and lose money there. O naughty, naughty Bangor.

Our citizens were startled by the ringing of the fire-bell last Sunday afternoon. The fire proved to be in the cellar of Longwell & Co.'s drug store, and was caused by a lot of sawdust saturated with linseed oil, and was a clear case of spontaneous combustion. The flames had not yet broken out, although the store was filled with smoke and the fumes of burning oil were plainly perceptible. People cannot be too cautious about such matters.
Had it occurred in the night a disastrous fire would have been the consequence, and its origin would have been a mystery. Perhaps some one would have been unjustly accused of incendiarism. There is no doubt that many mysterious fires occur in a similar manner. A lot of refuse saturated with linseed oil and confined, will certainly burn within twenty-four hours. The steamer was promptly on hand with its fire in full blast but fortunately was not needed, as a pail of water was sufficient to extinguish the incipient conflagration.

A. H. Herron will deliver his lecture on Prohibition at the Union Temperance Meeting at the M. E. Church, on next Sunday evening.

The annual meeting of the Van Buren County Pioneer Association, will be held at Lawrence, on Wednesday, June 7th, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m.

Rev. James Goodman will preach in the First Baptist church next Sabbath morning, on "Moral Gardening," and in the afternoon in the Baptist church at Lawton, on "God's Righteousness like the Great Mountains."

The ninth annual picnic of the Cass Co.
Pioneer Society will be held on the Fair Ground in Cassopolis, Wednesday, June 21, 1882. Hon. T. W. Palmer, of Detroit, will deliver the principal address. These meetings are the largest and most interesting gatherings held in the county, and the presence of yourself and family is respectfully solicited.

The Reunion of the Army of the Potomac will be held in Detroit on June 14th and 15th.
It is expected to be the grandest reunion of soldiers ever held. President Arthur, Gen. and Mrs. Grant, Gen. and Mrs. Sheridan, Gen. Hancock, ex-President and Mrs. Hayes, Gov. Jerome and staff, and a great number of other prominent men are expected to be in attendance. All railroads entering the city will sell round trip tickets for half fare which will be good, going on the 14th or 15th and returning on the 15th or 16th of June.

The decoration exercises conducted under the auspices of Brodhead Post, G. A. R., of this village, on Tuesday last, were very successful in every way, and reflected much credit on the old soldiers, who compose the Post, and gave much satisfaction to our citizens generally. An abundant supply of flowers was provided for the occasion by the patriotic ladies of our village and the surrounding country, for which the old vets desire to return their sincere thanks. At the hour appointed the members of the Post assembled at Town Hall and a detail proceeded with flowers to all the cemeteries of the village except Prospect Hill, and strewed flowers upon the graves of fourteen deceased comrades, including one revolutionary soldier who sleeps therein. At 10:30 the Post was formed in line under command of Commander B. F. Heckert, and marched to Prospect Hill, where the ceremonies peculiar to the order were conducted in a solemn and impressive manner, at the grave of Lieut.
Clark who died during the war at Nashville, Tenn., after which the graves of other comrades, who rest in that beautiful burying ground, were profusely covered with floral decorations. The number of deceased comrades whose memory was honored by the strewing of flowers above their last resting place, was twenty-eight. After the conclusion of the services at Prospect, the Post returned to the Town Hall where they and their friends partook of an elegant and bountiful repast which had been prepared by the ladies for their benefit. Too much praise cannot be awarded to those who prepared this banquet, and the members of the Post are under special obligations to those ladies who so kindly attended the tables during the time the boys were doing such ample justice to the viands prepared for them. At 1:30 p. m. the Post was again formed into line and marched to the court yard where the public exercises were held, which consisted of prayer by Rev. G. L. Cole, songs by the glee club, an address by Comrade O. W.
Rowland, remarks by comrades and citizens and benediction by Rev. H. W. Harvey. All seemed to be highly pleased with the exercises which were conducted without a break or jar from the beginning to the close. The vocal music was of a very high order and most appropriate to the occasion. It was rendered by a triple male quartette, consisting of the following named gentlemen, viz:
C. E. Hutchins, leader; A. H. Herron, Willis Herron, J. W. Free, J. F. Bullard, A. H.
Palmer, Bruce Cummings, G. W. Koons, A. C.
McCollum, Ed. Gilman, E. H. Lindsey and W. W. Mosier, Mamie Rowland, organist.
The martial music was furnished by Messrs.
A. W. Cummings, fife, Wm. Bullard, snare drummer, and G. W. Matthews, base drummer, and was of a character to stir anew the blood of the old soldiers who heard it.
Cummings and Bullard led the first company that ever left this county during the war, the old Lafayette Light Guard, and they won a reputation in the army, as musicians, second to none, and they have not forgotten how to play. No better players can be found any where. We trust that the custom of observing decoration day in this village, so auspiciously inaugurated may never be discontinued, but that the memories of our honored heroes may ever be kept green by this annual festal, and the rising generation thereby be taught the principles of undying patriotism and love of country that animated the breasts of those who fought the battles of freedom long years ago.
